EARLY PRINTS AND CENTRAL DATABASES

Ádám Hegyi, hegyi@bibl.u-szeged.hu
University of Szeged Faculty of Arts Department of Librarianship

One of the tasks of the Hungarian National Library is to create a national finding list of early prints. The so-colld Bodza system shell is the engine of this. Parallel to this, the MOKKA-R database works also in the Hungarian National Library. The MOKKA-R project is a shared catalogue of early prints. This presentation will show the relations of these two databases.